CHILD SUPPORT – ELIGIBILITY FOR CHILD SUPPORT FOR A SEVERELY DISABLED CHILD OVER THE AGE OF 23 WHO IS FINANCIALLY DEPENDENT – INTERIM RELAXATION OF COURT RULES TO CONFORM TO STATUTE

The Supreme Court has relaxed and supplemented Rule 5:6-9 (“Termination of Child Support Obligations”) so as to conform to L. 2019, c. 453, §1, which amended N.J.S.A. 2A:17-56.67 by authorizing the continuation of a child support obligation for a child over the age of 23 who has severe physical or mental incapacity and financial dependency. Child support for a physically or mentally incapacitated child over the age of 23 shall continue until the court finds that the child is relieved of the incapacity or is no longer financially dependent on the parent. The new law does not apply to financial maintenance that is not child support (e.g., college contributions).

The Court’s January 5, 2021 Order is attached. The rule relaxation is effective retroactive to December 1, 2020 and will remain in effect pending development and adoption of conforming rule amendments.

Questions may be directed to Assistant Director for Family Practice Joanne M. Dietrich at (609) 815-2900 x55350 or to Assistant Director for Probation Services Brenda Beacham at (609) 815-3810 x16243.
